Course Outline Revision Date: Fall 2010

Course Description:  This survey course examines Shakespeare’s histories, comedies, and tragedies, paying close attention to the major themes and characters, and their place in the social and literary context. Students will do an intensive study of selected plays representative of the various types.

General Education Goals: The aggregate of the core courses required for any major at ECC have the following goals:

1. Written and Oral Communication: Students will communicate effectively in both speech and writing.

2. Quantitative Knowledge and Skills: Students will use appropriate mathematical and statistical concepts and operations to interpret data and to solve problems.

3. Scientific Knowledge and Reasoning: Students will use the scientific method of inquiry through the acquisition of scientific knowledge.

4. Technological Competency/Information Literacy: Students will use computer systems or other appropriate forms of technology to achieve educational and personal goals.

5. Society and Human Behavior: Students will use social science theories and concepts to analyze human behavior and social and political institutions and to act as responsible citizens.

6. Humanistic Perspective: Students will analyze works in the field of art, music, or theater; literature; and philosophy and/or religious studies; and will gain competence in the use of a foreign language.

7. Historical Perspective: Students will understand historical events and movements in World, Western, non-Western, or American societies and assess their subsequent significance.

8. Global and Cultural Awareness of Diversity: Students will understand the importance of global perspective and culturally diverse peoples.

9. Ethics: Students will understand ethical issues and situations.
Course Goals: Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to do the following:

1. discuss the universality of cultural values as found in the works of Shakespeare, especially the plays; (GEG 8)
2. apply critical and analytical approaches to the study of Shakespeare’s works; (GEG 6) and
3. write critical and analytical essays about Shakespeare’s works. (GEG 1, GEG 4, GEG 6, and GEG 9)

Measurable Course Performance Objectives (MPOs): Upon successful completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

1. Discuss the universality of cultural values as found in the works of Shakespeare, especially the plays:
   1.1 identify the specific themes that identify the universality literary thought in Shakespeare’s works; and
   1.2 explain these universal themes as reflected in the specific plays
2. Apply critical and analytical approaches to the study of Shakespeare’s works:
   2.1 define basic terms and concepts used in literary discussion;
   2.2 analyze and describe how these terms and concepts operate in each work studied; and
   2.3 use these terms and concepts as the basis for literary analysis
3. Write critical and analytical essays about Shakespeare’s works:
   3.1 write several short critical and analytical essays about selected works studied;
   3.2 use appropriate citations from the source work to support the development of the thesis idea in the critical essay;
   3.3 write a longer documented literary research paper about a work relevant to the course;
   3.4 use appropriate citations from the source work to support the development of the thesis in the documented literary research paper;
   3.5 use the library and other resources to find relevant, scholarly secondary source material in support of the thesis in the documented literary research paper;
   3.6 write in one’s own voice in the essay while properly incorporating primary and secondary material; and
   3.7 prepare the documented literary research paper in standard MLA format

Methods of Instruction: Instruction will consist of lecture, discussion, and the development of a series of extended compositions analyzing pieces of literature, including a documented literary research paper.

Outcomes Assessment: Checklist rubrics are used to evaluate sampled student critical essays analyzing literature for the presence of the measurable objectives. A survey to be administered following essays evaluates student preparation for writing analysis of literature. Checklist rubrics are used to evaluate the various elements of the documented literary research paper. And a survey that is blueprinted to learning objectives is administered during the twelfth week.
Course Requirements: All students are required to:

1. Complete the intensive reading of five or more literary masterpieces by Shakespeare. The selection should include a balance of literary genres.

2. Write critical essays and a documented literary research paper to total at least three thousand words. The documented literary research paper should be written according to current MLA format.

3. Read shorter works, such as sonnets, as assigned by the instructor.

4. Read all other assigned material.

5. Participate in class discussions.

Methods of Evaluation: Final course grades will be computed as follows:

Academic Integrity: Dishonesty disrupts the search for truth that is inherent in the learning process and so devalues the purpose and the mission of the College. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- plagiarism – the failure to acknowledge another writer’s words or ideas or to give proper credit to sources of information;
- cheating – knowingly obtaining or giving unauthorized information on any test/exam or any other academic assignment;
- interference – any interruption of the academic process that prevents others from the proper engagement in learning or teaching; and
- fraud – any act or instance of willful deceit or trickery.

Violations of academic integrity will be dealt with by imposing appropriate sanctions. Sanctions for acts of academic dishonesty could include the resubmission of an assignment, failure of the test/exam, failure in the course, probation, suspension from the College, and even expulsion from the College.

Student Code of Conduct: All students are expected to conduct themselves as responsible and considerate adults who respect the rights of others. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. All students are also expected to attend and be on time all class meetings. No cell phones or similar electronic devices are permitted in class. Please refer to the Essex County College student handbook, Lifeline, for more specific information about the College’s Code of Conduct and attendance requirements.
