Methods of Instruction: Instruction will consist of lectures, discussions, written and oral presentation projects (3 – 4 articles per semester for publication in the College newspaper, ECCO), editing, and critique of readings from textbooks, newspapers, and/or magazines (e.g., Time, The Nation, Newsweek, local, national and international newspapers, etc.).

Outcomes Assessment: Test and exam questions are blueprinted to student learning objectives. Checklist rubrics are used to evaluate sampled student writing of news stories (e.g., writing three to four articles for the College newspaper – ECCO) for course objectives including the recognition of news elements (e.g., impact, proximity, engagement, etc.). A checklist rubric is used to evaluate students’ presentations as they analyze and critique print, broadcast and electronic news for clarity, accuracy, and the presence of course objectives. Finally, a survey is administered at the end of the semester to evaluate students’ attitudes, perceptions, and skills regarding the basics of writing, reporting and presenting news clearly in forms and styles appropriate to the journalism profession.
Course Requirements: All students are required to:

1. Write a diagnostic essay on the first day of class.
2. Maintain regular attendance.
3. Complete textbook readings, conduct research and interviews, check grammar and sources before writing 3 – 4 articles for the College newspaper (ECCO).
4. Complete all tests and exams using the Associated Press Style.

Note: The instructor will provide specific weights, which lie in the above-given ranges, for each of the grading components at the beginning of the semester. Students must score at least 80% for the overall grade to pass the course.
Academic Integrity: Dishonesty disrupts the search for truth that is inherent in the learning process and so devalues the purpose and the mission of the College. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- plagiarism – the failure to acknowledge another writer’s words or ideas or to give proper credit to sources of information;
- cheating – knowingly obtaining or giving unauthorized information on any test/exam or any other academic assignment;
- interference – any interruption of the academic process that prevents others from the proper engagement in learning or teaching; and
- fraud – any act or instance of willful deceit or trickery.

Violations of academic integrity will be dealt with by imposing appropriate sanctions. Sanctions for acts of academic dishonesty could include the resubmission of an assignment, failure of the test/exam, failure in the course, probation, suspension from the College, and even expulsion from the College.

Student Code of Conduct: All students are expected to conduct themselves as responsible and as considerate adults who respect the rights of others. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. All students are also expected to attend and be on time for all class meetings. No cell phones or similar electronic devices are permitted in class. Please refer to the Essex County College student handbook, Lifeline, for more specific information about the College’s Code of Conduct and attendance requirements.
Course Content Outline: The recommended texts and suggested readings from newspapers and magazines for the class are as follows:

Read and critique columns and articles from various magazines such as Time, The Nation, Newsweek, US World Report, and The Republic.
